FE WINES CABERNET SAUVIGNON, NAPA VALLEY, SPRING MOUNTAIN 2021

Fe Wines has been producing some of the most exciting wines from Napa and the 2021 Cabernet Sauvignon no exception. This is another exceptional wine from Fe that brings with perfumed aromas of ripe blackberries and dark cherries, violets, gravel, iron, and a hints of earth, savory mountain herbs that captivate the senses. On the palate this reveals a luxurious full body with a tapestry of dark cherries, black currants, dusty gravel and suggestions of spices and dark cocoa flavors that are framed by beautifully polished, yet structured tannins. Its expressive personality continues to emerge as it delivers a layered, supple mouthfeel with incredible concentration and depth, that is underlined by the signature Spring Mountain minerality which highlights its terroir all the way through the enveloping finish. Napa enthusiasts looking for a high-quality wine that brings together the power, sophistication, structure and concentration of a Mountain Cabernet should look no further than this stunning Cabernet from Fe wines.
